NOTICE

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic there are no in-person Municipal Court sessions. We are rescheduling court sessions via video conferencing. Court offices are closed to the public.

We are resuming Municipal Court sessions via video conferencing. Notices of rescheduled court dates will include further instructions and contact information for the municipal court.

Defendants may continue to make payments for parking, traffic, and certain non-traffic matters through the municipal court's online payment website at NJMCdirect.com.

Due to the municipal court building being officially closed, no in-person payments can be accepted at the court window.

Defendants may also mail in payments or utilize the drop box located outside the main entrance of the municipal building.

To contact the Pemberton Township municipal court office by telephone, please call (609) 894-3337.
